(G.O.Ms.No.89, III&C Dept Dated:23.10.2019)

GUIDELINES FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE “Y.S.R. NETHANNA NESTHAM” SCHEME

I. Objective:

To help the Weavers to modernize their equipment and compete with the products from the Powerloom sector, Rs. 24,000/- will be provided to every Weaver family who owns a Handloom.

II. Eligibility:

The scheme is applicable to all Handloom Weavers who are actually engaged in Handloom Weaving and eking their livelihood from Weaving, and who are present in the Departmental Data Base.

Re-verification of the existing Weaver data base with the department by village and ward volunteers is in progress to cover left over beneficiaries, if any, deletions and updation of details. The re-verification will be completed by 31st October, 2019 and will be the basis for distribution of “Y.S.R. NETHANNA NESTHAM”

III. Pattern of the Assistance:

Assistance of Rs.24,000/- to every Weaver family in the State through DBT.

IV. Mode of Implementation:

a. The Assistant Director (H&T) with the approval of DLC/ District Collector concerned will submit the list of eligible Handloom Weaver families for granting Rs. 24,000/- per family along with Bank Account No, Aadhaar No., and other details every year.

b. The Director of Handlooms & Textiles A.P., will transfer the funds through DBT to the eligible beneficiary Accounts directly through CFMS Portal. The Modalities similar to the one adopted by Transport Department for A.P. Y.S.R. Vahana Mitra Scheme will be followed.

c. Provision will be made for additions, deletions or to make changes in the Data base on social audit.
